Join us for our World Hospice and Palliative Care Day Event!

---

Living and dying in pain

It doesn’t have to happen

75% of the world population (5.5 billion) does not have adequate access to controlled medications for pain relief.

Millions of people suffer from pain which is avoidable and could be managed with proper access to the correct medications. Each year about 18 million people die in pain.

National laws, gaps in healthcare workers’ education and economic barriers prevent people from getting pain relief.

DONATE NOW | Just Giving Campaign: http://bit.ly/1XNIEqF

---

Join us for our World Hospice and Palliative Care Day Event!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>EVENT TITLE:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>DATE:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TIME:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PLACE:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Photography Credit: African Palliative Care Association: rights granted by The Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund

www.thewhpca.org